

MATTHEW BARLEY AND THE CHINESE SILK STRING QUARTET

A NIGHT OF COMPOSITION AND COLLABORATION

Performing traditional music from their own repertoire and also new works by Peter Weigold, ('sonic brilliance' The Independent) and Barnaby Taylor (Composer of Wild China, recent BBC documentary).

Cheng Yu, Sun Zhuo, Kim Ho Ip and Wang Xiao are The Chinese Silk String Quartet. As heard on the award winning Opera 'Monkey: Journey to the West' (with Blur singer Damon Albarn and Jamie Hewlett of Gorillaz), they were the 2007 winner of PRS

Foundation (for New Music) Awards for Performance Groups. For one night only the quartet will perform with collaborating virtuoso, cellist Matthew Barley.

'I wish more people would think about music the way Matthew Barley does' The Times
